CATHOLIC CHURCH

Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time
February 24, 2019

Reflection

We all need companions all the time. In infancy and childhood, from puberty to adulthood, in our career paths and life choices, in sickness unto our deathbed—we all need to be accompanied. Life would be impossible if we went through it alone.

The Church has been severely hurt and wounded by the sins of her priests against the youth and against the Church. Despite the limitations of us their elders in the Church, we have not been lacking in heroic young leaders in our parishes and schools who serve without pay or recognition. We their spiritual shepherds are humbled by the sterling enthusiastic love of our youth.

To the parents, teachers and priests: The young Jesus is among the young. Let the young teach us as we teach them. Let the young show us the face of Jesus as we keep on trying to love them like Jesus.

To the young: Show us Jesus and be our guide to see Him more clearly, to love Him more dearly, to follow Him more nearly.

PASTOR'S PARAGRAPH

My Dear Friends,

A warning: members of the parish are receiving spam emails from me asking you to purchase iTunes cards for charity. It is a scam. Another pastor told me his account has also been hacked. These people are very clever. Be assured: I will never ask anyone for money via email.

About our own Bishop's Annual Appeal: last week we received 51 additional pledges/gifts. Many, many thanks. We now have $189,407 received from 585 members of the parish. That is 33% participation. Our parish goal is $191,507. Any funds over the goal stay in the parish and we can use those funds for many good parish needs.

Another motive for giving: March 6 is Ash Wednesday, the beginning of Lent. In Lent we are encouraged to prayer, sacrifice, and alms-giving. Let the BAA be your Lent alms-giving.

CONFESSIONS: There are Confessions Saturday February 23 at 10:30, after Baptisms - and on Saturday March 2 at 10:30, after Baptisms. A schedule of Lent Penance Services at various parishes will be published soon. Our own parish Penance Service [which we share with St Andrew] will be Thursday March 14 at 7 pm.
