

St. Mary Magdalene

CATHOLIC CHURCH

Easter Sunday
April 21, 2019

Reflection

Luke's Passion account highlights how much Jesus loved life. His struggle to say yes to his Father's will ("take this cup away from me") was so intense that he sweat blood. He also intensely loved others and their lives: he healed the man with the severed ear, comforted the women of Jerusalem, forgave his executioners, promised Paradise to the repentant thief.

For the sake of others' life he was willing to give over his own life ("not my will but yours be done"). Jesus' struggle and self-giving is to be ours. While intensely loving the Life given us, we also are to give it over for others.

SECOND REFLECTION

One of Luke's favorite motifs is the arrival of the divine in the midst of the everyday. Angels sing to shepherds tending their flocks, a miraculous catch turns fishermen into apostles, and a tax collector meets Jesus at his customs post. A messenger is always necessary to bring transformation out of a moment of wonder. We must be that voice, showing all that Jesus Christ is still alive and at work among us. - Father Michael Simone, SJ

PASTOR'S PARAGRAPH

My Dear Friends,

Happy Easter to all – this is our 2nd Easter in our new church. I am so grateful we are here, especially for our Holy week ceremonies this past week.

We welcome into our parish community those who were received into our parish community either through the Sacraments of Baptism or Confirmation during the Easter Vigil: Emma Canina, Christopher Pearce, Brandon Green, Janie Annunziata, Kevin Johnson, Jennifer Potter, Mary Tilley, Zachery Andersen. We are grateful for the new life they bring by being part of our parish.

I am also most grateful to all those who gave of their talents and time for the Holy Week ceremonies and for those who prepared the church. And for those who help in our RCIA program all during the year. There are many names and all of them give of their talents and time for these tasks. May they be filled with Easter blessings for their generous service. I am also grateful to our Parish staff for providing Communion Services for next Tuesday and Wednesday.

Regarding the Bishop's Annual Appeal – so far we have 731 donors who have given $233,003. We have about 41% parish participation. Gift/Pledge forms are in the pew racks.

CONFESSIONS: At St Mary Magdalene there will not be Confessions on Holy Saturday. There will be Confessions on Saturday April 17 at 10:30, after Baptisms.

Father Donald Staib
