Reflection

While we might not be 'dumb sheep,' we certainly have done some dumb things and made hurtful decisions in our lives. When we reflect on how we have been on our own, we have to admit we need a shepherd to stay with us and guide us. And more: to give us encouragement and healing when we need it. Not just an ordinary shepherd of course, but a good shepherd who won't leave us when our lives get tough and we are attacked by one kind of wolf, or another. What kind of wolves? Wolves like: misfortune, material envy, loneliness, addiction, discontent, the allure of false security and misdirected goals. Father Jude Siciliano, OP

PASTOR'S PARAGRAPH

My Dear Friends,

This week we will celebrate 2 Sacraments for young members of our parish.

On this weekend and next there will be 130 children who receive First Communion at the weekend Masses. We congratulate the children, their parents, and those in our Faith Formation program who helped to prepare them for this wonderful day. May the Lord who nourishes them in the Eucharist continue to bless them all their lives. 36 of these children were baptized at St Mary Magdalene.

On Wednesday evening Bishop Luis Rafael Zarama will be with us to confer the Sacrament of Confirmation on 126 students in our Youth Program. Congratulations to the students, their parents, and those in our Youth program who helped in the two year preparation period. We welcome all the family members who have come from out of town to honor those receiving the sacraments. If you have not been here to visit since last July, you will notice some changes in our campus.

Also one other big event on Sunday evening at our 6 pm Youth Mass -- Bishop Luis Rafael Zarama will make his first visit to our parish to celebrate this Mass. It is a visit to honor our Youth at their last Mass of the year, but all members of the parish are welcome to attend.

Thanks to all those who volunteered to help in the School Spring Festival -- always a great event of the year.

Father Donald Staib

Eucharistic

Adoration

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament/ Eucharistic Adoration—StMM has Adoration available every Friday in the Chapel after daily Mass. On the First Friday of each month Adoration begins after daily Mass and ends at 8pm. This requires that we have many people committed to praying in front of the Blessed Sacrament throughout the day. We always need more people for this ministry! Please consider committing 1 hour each month. On all of the other Fridays throughout the year we have 1 hour of Adoration after the 8:15am daily Mass. Take advantage of these opportunities to spend time with the Lord. If you would like to participate contact Anita Becker at 919-642-0441 or AlAnitaBecker@aol.com.

Do you receive Father Staib's E-News? If not, let us add or update your email address in the StMM directory for online communication. Email info@stmm.net and we can add or update our Email distribution list.

Now is the perfect time to become a registered parishioner of St. Mary Magdalene! You can pick up a parish registration form in the Narthex or email info@stmm.net and registration form will be emailed to you. The easiest way to return the form is to drop it in the collection basket when you come for Mass. Once you are registered you will receive a Welcome Packet in the mail and will be added to the Email Distribution list to receive our 'almost' every week E-News!

I praise you, for you are fearful and wonderful. Wonderful are your works! You know me right well" (Ps 139[138]: 13-14)*

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Today, on the 4th Sunday of Easter, the universal Church celebrates the 55th World Day of Prayer for Vocations. Our Holy Father, Pope Francis, has informed us that the concentration of the fifteenth synod to take place in October of this year will be young people and their relationships with faith and vocation.

Pope Francis writes, “Even amid these troubled times, the mystery of the Incarnation reminds us that God continually comes to encounter us. He is God-with-us, who walks along the often dusty paths of our lives. He knows our anxious longing for love and he calls us to joy. In the diversity and the uniqueness of each and every vocation, personal and ecclesial, there is a need to listen, discern and live this word that calls to us from on high and, while enabling us to develop our talents, makes us instruments of salvation in the world and guides us to full happiness.”

Please join me on this World Day of Prayer for Vocations in praying alongside our Holy Father that our youth may be sent out as disciples to foster a deep-rooted Faith and love for Our Lord, Jesus Christ. We also pray in a special way for all the priests and religious serving in the Diocese and specifically that our local Diocese will be blessed with an increase in vocations to the Priesthood and Consecrated Religious Life.

We also express gratitude to all married couples for their beautiful example. You are a visible sign for the love that Our Lord Jesus has for His Bride, the Church. With God’s grace, may your love grow stronger with the passing of each new day.

Through the intercession of Mary Our Mother and Saint Joseph, may Our Risen Lord Jesus bless you and your family in this Sacred Season of Easter and always.

In Christ,

† Luis R. Zarama
