Reflection

What have your children taught you about your faith?

I am glad they are asking questions about faith because it means they want to know. That is basically what my kids have done for me in a whole host of things. Why do you believe what you believe? Why do you treat people the way you do? Why should a person do the right thing when nobody is watching?

And I have tried to come at their question in various ways. I have told them something life: 'Even if you decided not to be religious, it turns out this is a great way to live your life. Even if you don't sign up for the whole Catholicism thing, live gratefully, humbly, caring about other people. Just read the beatitudes, kids, and then we'll talk.

My faith orders my life. It helps me a lot. And I want to show my kids that because I want to give that gift to them. It was a gift that my parents gave to me through God. So I want to give them the same gift.
