Reflection

Acts of the Apostles today describes the first Council of the Church. It was called in Jerusalem by Jesus' followers to try to resolve a conflict among Jesus' early followers. The events described in Acts 15 describe the pivotal issue of The Acts of the Apostles. The decision made in Jerusalem was essential to allow the Gospel to spread beyond the small group of Jesus' Jewish disciples.

The quotation Luke attributed to the false teachers from Judea summarizes the conservative side of the debate: "Unless you keep the Mosaic practice, you cannot be saved." The question of whether Gentile converts had to become Jews in order to be Christians echoed Jesus' debates with antagonistic religious leaders: They adhered to details of the law, while Jesus advocated for fulfilling its underlying purpose.

What does this mean to us? The disciples' conflict can sound very familiar as we struggle over how our church and society are being called to adapt and change as technology shrinks distance, and travel and immigration bring diverse cultures into living contact with one another. We are living in a moment of extraordinary grace and opportunity. Our debates may be fierce, but we need to trust that the Holy Spirit will guide us if we are open. The road we choose will make all the difference.

FINANCIAL MATTERS

OUR NEW CHURCH – We have the obligation to make large monthly payments for 14 years for the construction of the church. In addition we are challenged to respond to new parish endeavors in all our parish programs. We are grateful to those who help us in the weekly Offertory for regular expenses and in the monthly white envelope for debt payments for the church.

First Communion – Congratulations to all our parish children who received their First Communion these past two weekends. May they continue to come to the table of the Lord every week-end as their faith journey continues to unfold throughout their lives.
