CATHOLIC CHURCH

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time
July 21, 2019

Reflection

The tension portrayed in the story of Martha and Mary has not disappeared. Some disciples strive to attend to all the details — the hungry need food and the refugees need shelter. At the same time, the tasks of diakonia, the constant commitment to respond to the needs of others, can become so burdensome that we lose touch with Christ and the Gospel for whom we started it all.

There is no single correct interpretation of the story of Martha and Mary. It seems that Luke sandwiched it between the story of the generous Samaritan and Jesus' teaching on prayer to indicate that the tension itself is important. Martha and Mary both chose the good, but there can be too much of a good thing. Christian disciples must continually seek the balance. - Sister Mary McGlone

PASTOR'S PARAGRAPH

My Dear Friends,

Today I am grateful to Msgr. Gerald Lewis who will celebrate the weekend Masses while I make a summer visit with family in Denver. I will return late Tuesday. Daily Mass will resume on Wednesday.

Also with us today is Deacon Thomas Nemchik of the Archdiocese of Atlanta. We welcome him to StMM. His son Andrew plays many instruments in our parish choir and is one of our experts on the church sound system.

Thank you for your generosity last weekend in the appeal for the missions of Maryknoll in Tanzania. We received $8,535, a very generous offering. If you were not here last weekend and wish to give, place your gift in an envelope and mark it for Maryknoll.

July 15 was the second anniversary of the Dedication of our Church. And July 22 is the feast of St Mary Magdalene. We rejoice in our blessings and are honored by our patron St Mary Magdalene.

CONFESSIONS: There will not be Confessions on Saturday July 20. There will be Confessions on Saturday July 27 at 10:30, after Baptisms.

Father Donald Staib

It is about seeking a new intimacy with Jesus and the fullness of the Holy Spirit, so that we can be and bring God's presence to the people and circumstances of our lives. If you have never said yes to Jesus' offer to have a relationship with you, this is an opportunity to do so, as well as seek to experience the fullness of his Holy Spirit. If you have said yes to Jesus' offer to have a relationship with him, but that relationship has grown distant, this is an opportunity to renew that relationship and also seek to experience the fullness of the Holy Spirit.
