Reflection

This is one man's story, of a life that has seen its share of dark days and those filled with light. It is a life shared with many people, through the good times and the not so good, and as I write about those people, these are but snapshots, taken from my angle, at that time, in that place. To retell the story of my life, I used letters, photos, journal entries, interviews, and other research, in addition to calling on my own memory. I have attempted to reconstruct events and conversations as accurately as possible and to the best of my memory. If I have made any mistakes, in fact, tone, or context, they are unintentional. In a very few cases, where it was appropriate, names and identities have been changed. All else in the book is fact - as least as best I could recall and relate it. From the 'Author's Note' of Paul Wilkes' autobiography In Due Season.

HOMES OF HOPE
India

At the weekend liturgies, July 21-22, StMM will have the opportunity to hear about the work being done by the heroic Franciscan Clarist sisters among the poorest of the poor in India. It is work that can only be realized through the generosity of laypeople like us. We will learn of the critical need for a new orphanage at Alphonsa Home in Bongaigaon, Assam, India. The sisters are praying to build a home for 75 orphaned and disabled girls who are now crammed into classrooms, as there is no other place for them. The girls have lived in terrible poverty and have been marginalized by society. But now in the loving care of the Franciscan Clarist sisters, they will have a safe, stable life. They will go to school; they will receive proper medication, treatment, and nutritious food. You can find more about the inspired work of the sisters on the website www.homesofhopeindia.org or in the brochure that will be handed out at weekend liturgies. Each $3,000 we raise will be memorialized with the name of our parish on a stepping stone that will lead to the new building in Bongaigaon. The sisters and girls will pray those stones – much like a rosary--for us each day. Contact: Paul Wilkes 910-815-0694 or paul-wilkes1234@gmail.com

Fetal Development of Abigail—When I am sleeping, I have REM (rapid eye movements), which means I am dreaming, but I can't remember my dreams. My vocal cords have formed but I don't make a sound – must be because there is no air in here. Isn't it amazing that I'm able to breathe "underwater," inhaling and exhaling small amounts of amniotic fluid? Mom is probably starting to "show" now. "I came that they may have life and have it abundantly." (John 10:10)
