CATHOLIC CHURCH

Reflection

Jesus told his disciples that it would be better for someone to have a millstone tied around his neck and be cast into the sea than to "put a stumbling block before one of these little ones who believe in me" (Mt 18:6). Surely it would be better for the church to lead the way in listening to people who have been harmed and abused than to continue defending, even through silence, the authority and reputation of leaders who have already betrayed their pastoral responsibilities. [Editors of America Magazine]

The answer I keep coming to: Jesus already knew about abusers. He groaned as His back was laid open on the way to Calvary. His scalp split with the pressure of the thorny mass of lies, evasions, excuses and accommodations as the decades passed and everybody knew. Jesus knew and he wept and bled and died knowing. And Jesus knew about everything else we may find out. That is why He came. Remember this, whatever else we do. [Simcha Fisher - a writer for America Magazine]

Fetal Development of Abigail—I can hear my mother's heartbeat and some other funny noises she makes. I'm beginning to know her voice. My umbilical cord (that's where I get my food from) is really awesome – an engineering marvel. Abigail's umbilical cord transports 300 quarts of fluid per day and completes a round-trip of fluids every 30 seconds. I am 20 weeks old now, and in another 20 weeks I will be born! "You did form my inward parts; you did knit me together in my mother's womb." (Ps 139)

Each Friday, August 3–September 28, answer the U.S. bishops' call to pray and fast that a change in the U.S. Supreme Court will move our nation closer to the day when every human being is protected in law and welcomed in life. Join at www.usccb.org/pray/
