REFLECTION

All of today's readings speak about people on the move in search of a new homeland. As Christians, we are all migrants journeying with others; all of us responding to God's call to prepare for the coming of God's concept of home, a home built on the foundations of justice, mercy, virtue, and love.

Our task is to animate lives of service and solidarity with others who may have had different life experiences than ours. --- Barbara Molinari Quinby, Director of Social Justice Ministries Holy Name of Jesus Cathedral, Raleigh

PASTOR'S PARAGRAPH

My Dear Friends,

The August weeks before school opens seem quiet. Though we know for some people there has been, not quiet, but sorrow and loss.

Pope Francis said this last week: 'I am spiritually close to the victims of the episodes of violence that these days have bloodied Texas, California and Ohio, in the United States, affecting defenseless people. I invite you to join in my prayer for those who have lost their lives, for the wounded and for their families.'

In other opportunities I noticed Pope Francis also used the word 'defenseless' for people who are victims of trafficking and for refugees.

Next Sunday we will have a 'Back to School' Mass at 4 pm to welcome our StMM school children who begin school on August 20.

There is a second collection this weekend for Priest Retirement.

CONFESSIONS: There will be Confessions on Saturday August 10 10:30, after Baptisms. Also there will be Confessions on Saturday August 17, after Baptisms.

Father Donald Staib

It is about seeking a new intimacy with Jesus and the fullness of the Holy Spirit, so that we can be and bring God's presence to the people and circumstances of our lives. If you have never said yes to Jesus' offer to have a relationship with you, this is an opportunity to do so, as well as seek to experience the fullness of his Holy Spirit. If you have said yes to Jesus' offer to have a relationship with him, but that relationship has grown distant, this is an opportunity to renew that relationship and also seek to experience the fullness of the Holy Spirit.
