REFLECTION

In the Gospel Jesus continues on the road to Jerusalem. He is now about halfway through the journey that He began in chapter 9 of Luke's Gospel.

Along the way Jesus meets Samaritans, women, men, children, Pharisees, scholars, people who are lame, people who suffer from leprosy, people who are blind, a rich official, and tax collectors. To each of these diverse groups, Jesus proclaims the same message: the kingdom of God is at hand. In all that He does Jesus speaks the kingdom and lives the kingdom.

Today's Gospel gives us another vision of what this kingdom is about. The way to enter is 'narrow,' but inside the kingdom we will find people of every race, nation, and tongue.

PASTOR'S PARAGRAPH

My Dear Friends,

In the lobby today there is opportunity for people to find information about our parish RCIA [Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults] program. This is for anyone who wishes to inquire about the Catholic faith. Our RCIA group meets on Monday evenings.

RCIA time is for asking questions. Someone asked Jesus a question in today's Gospel. In Jesus' response it is ironic that the 'narrow gate' for entering God's kingdom revolves around our developing a very broad mind.

Congratulations to all who made the opening day of school a joyous event this past week. Our students will begin the weekly Thursday 8:15 Mass this coming week.

CONFESSIONS: There will be Confessions on Saturday August 24 at 10:30, after Baptisms. Also there will be Confessions on Saturday August 31, after Baptisms.

Father Donald Staib

Parish Mission Statement

We, the Parish of St. Mary Magdalene in Apex, North Carolina,
Believe in the constant love of God made known to us through the words and actions of Jesus.
We are a warm and welcoming community of faith in Christ and the Catholic Church.
We are committed to the religious and academic education of our families as a foundation for spiritual growth and to bring us into a closer relationship with God.
Through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, we seek to provide meaningful liturgies, stimulating faith formation,
And a broad range of social ministries for the growth of one another and of service to our greater community.
