Reflection - HENRI NOUWEN

Father Henri Nouwen wrote a book called The Wounded Healer - it is a hope-filled and profoundly simple book that speaks directly to those men and women who want to be of service in their church or community, but have found the traditional ways often threatening and ineffective. In this book, Henri Nouwen combines creative case studies of ministry with stories from diverse cultures and religious traditions in preparing a new model for ministry. Weaving keen cultural analysis with his psychological and religious insights, Nouwen has come up with a balanced and creative theology of service that begins with the realization of fundamental woundedness in human nature.

Emphasizing that which is in humanity common to both minister and believer, this woundedness can serve as a source of strength and healing when counseling others. Nouwen proceeds to develop his approach to ministry with an analysis of sufferings — a suffering world, a suffering generation, a suffering person, and a suffering minister. It is his contention that ministers are called to recognize the sufferings of their time in their own hearts and make that recognition the starting point of their service.

For Nouwen, ministers must be willing to go beyond their professional role and leave themselves open as fellow human beings with the same wounds and suffering — in the image of Christ. In other words, we heal from our own wounds. Filled with examples from everyday experience, The Wounded Healer is a thoughtful and insightful guide that will be welcomed by anyone engaged in the service of others.

PASTOR'S PARAGRAPH

My Dear Friends,

Lately I have been mentioning anniversaries of our parish; here is another one: on the 21st Sunday in Ordinary Time 2012 I made the first public announcement of our plans to build a new church. It took 5 years from that announcement to the completion of construction in 2017.

Here is some information I may refer to in this week's homily – there are communities called L'Arche communities in the United States and in other countries. L'Arche [which means The Ark] provide homes and workplaces where people with and without intellectual disabilities live and work together as peers; create inclusive communities of faith and friendship; and transform society through relationships that cross social boundaries. A person who once lived in a L'Arche community is Father Henri Nouwen; I included in the Reflection some other aspects of his writing.

CONFESSIONS: There will not be Confessions on Saturday August 25. There will be Confessions Saturday September 1 at 10:30 am.

Father Donald Staib

We are grateful to those who help us in the weekly Offertory for regular expenses and in the monthly white envelope for debt payments for the church.

Catechetical Corner

All programs begin the week of September 23rd/25th/26.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd classes closed are Sundays 8:45a-10a & Sundays 12p-1:15.

2018-2019 Elementary Program Registration is still open for returning families & new families. Access www.stmm.church. Select Religious Education. Select Elementary. Click on the Traditional Elementary link.

We Need You! Class size is always a priority. The smaller the class, the better the weekly experience for the students as well as for the dedicated volunteer catechists. Consider being a volunteer catechist. We have 44 in place. We need 26 more.

Every single catechist returning this year works full-time outside the home, and yet they make the time to give back to their parish 75 minutes a week for 30 weeks in a given calendar year.

Looking to meet new people? Looking to get involved in parish life? This ministry is just for you. All lesson plans & materials are provided to you each week. All you need to do is bring your enthusiasm. Each class has 2 Adult Level C Safe Environment catechists.

Classes are held on Sundays from 12p-1:15p / Tuesdays from 5p-6:15p / Wednesdays 6:30p-7:45p. Programs are closed the weeks surrounding Thanksgiving/Christmas/Easter. We are beginning the week of September 23rd & will end the beginning of May.

Catechist Openings: Sundays-Grade K/1/2/3/4/5...Tuesdays-Grade K/1/2/3/4/5...Wednesdays-Grade 3 Contact either Celeste at usischon@stmm.net OR Suzanne at will@stmm.net. Some of these classes already have 1 catechist in place while others have 2 vacancies.

General Sacrament Information-Sacrament preparation is a 2 year process regardless of age /grade. Kindergarten is an optional class & does not fulfill the prerequisite. A copy of a Catholic baptism is required.

All our programs serve only registered contributing parishioners. Contributing parishioners use either the electronic draft OR envelope process.

Parish Mission Statement

We, the Parish of St. Mary Magdalene in Apex, North Carolina,
Believe in the constant love of God made known to us through the words and actions of Jesus.

We are a warm and welcoming community of faith in Christ and the Catholic Church.

We are committed to the religious and academic education of our families as a foundation for spiritual growth and to bring us into a closer relationship with God.

Through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, we seek to provide meaningful liturgies, stimulating faith formation,
And a broad range of social ministries for the growth of one another and of service to our greater community.
