

St. Mary Magdalene

CATHOLIC CHURCH

The Epiphany of the Lord
January 5, 2020

REFLECTION

On Epiphany we have the story of the Magi, pilgrims who were obviously well-educated and sufficiently wealthy. They were open enough to look beyond the limits of their own wisdom. They were so hungry for more meaning in life that they went to a foreign land and consulted the wisdom of an alien tradition.

When they learned what they could from the Jewish theologians, they continued on the way their own lights led them. Finally, they met the mother and child and discerned that they had found what they were seeking.

In the end, Matthew simply says, "They departed for their country by another way." That's another way of telling us they were not the same as they had been when they set off on the journey. We know nothing more about them.

This is a story about the unexpected and unfinished. Note that the Magi, who came bearing rich gifts, offered nothing to Herod and his court. Royal splendor failed to impress them. But their own religious symbol, the star that called them beyond the familiar, led them to a simple family. - Sister Mary McGlone

PASTOR'S PARAGRAPH

My Dear Friends,

Happy Feast of Epiphany. The Magi were religious seekers. They found what they were looking for. We also are seekers, perhaps still on our journey. May the new year 2020 be a time we are blessed along our way.

We wish a wonderful 100th birthday to one of our parish members: Dr. Vincent Romeo. May God bless all his days to come.

We are saddened to report the deaths of two members of our parish: Al Martin and John Hughes. May God give them peace and give comfort to their families.

CONFESSIONS - There will be confessions on Saturday January 4 at 10:30 after Baptisms. And also on Saturday January 11 at 10:30.

Father Donald Staib
