CATHOLIC CHURCH

Reflection

In some strange sense, we are more whole when we are incomplete. The individual who has everything is in some ways a poor person; the 'rich' will never know what it feels like to yearn, to hope, to nourish the soul with the dream of something better, to receive with gratitude something they already possess

As the young man in today's Gospel cannot understand, there is wholeness to those who can give their time, money, and strength to others and not feel diminished in doing so. There is a wholeness to those who can accept their limitations, who learn that they are strong enough to go through a tragedy and survive, who can lose something or someone and still feel complete.

PASTOR'S PARAGRAPH

My Dear Friends,

In recent months our Parish Council has discussed the issue of Stewardship in our parish. I am grateful for all the efforts and plans they have made. We downsized some of the ways to bring this issue to our parish because it may not be the best of times to emphasize money.

But we did keep some of the plans. In the pew rack today is a purple pamphlet we invite you to take home for a daily meditation. Also there will be handed out with the bulletin a brochure. At the bottom of this page is a note where you can find our annual Financial Report.

I am grateful for all the efforts of our Parish Council and Finance Council and I also thank all those who support our Ministries at St Mary Magdalene.

CONFESSIONS: There will be Confessions on Saturday October 13 at 10:30, but not on October 20. [A wedding will keep the pastor busy on October 20]

Father Donald Staib

NATIONAL AWARENESS INFANT LOSS—October is National Pregnancy and Infant Loss Awareness Month. When a child loses his parent, they are called an orphan. When a spouse loses her or his partner, they are called a widow or widower. When parents lose their child, there isn't a word to describe them. This month recognizes the loss so many parents experience across the United States and around the world. It is also meant to inform and provide resources for parents who have lost children due to miscarriage, ectopic pregnancy, molar pregnancy, stillbirths, birth defects, SIDS, and other causes. We keep all who experience tragic loss in our prayers.

Next weekend, we will celebrate World Mission Sunday. Pope Francis invites the entire Church to support the mission dioceses in Africa, Asia, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe, where priests, religious and lay leaders serve the world's most vulnerable communities. Please keep the Pope's missions in your prayers and be generous in next week's collection..

Parish Mission Statement

We, the Parish of St. Mary Magdalene in Apex, North Carolina,
Believe in the constant love of God made known to us through the words and actions of Jesus.

We are a warm and welcoming community of faith in Christ and the Catholic Church.

We are committed to the religious and academic education of our families as a foundation for spiritual growth and to bring us into a closer relationship with God.

Through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, we seek to provide meaningful liturgies, stimulating faith formation,
And a broad range of social ministries for the growth of one another and of service to our greater community.
