Reflection

REFLECTIONS OF CARDINAL WILFRID NAPIER
OF DURBIN, SOUTH AFRICA AT THE ROME SYNOD ON YOUTH

The synod's work must take into account the situation of young people and the Church in other parts of the world, noting especially the needs of the Church in Africa.

The bishops are not only talking "about young people, but we're talking with them and to them," He praised the contributions of 34 young people invited by Pope Francis to be active participants.

The Youth offer short speeches just as bishops do, and participate in the small discussion circles that will help to shape the synod's final report.

The cardinal said that this is the eighth time he has participated in a synod of bishops, and that the participation of young Catholics in this synod makes it a very different experience from those he has previously attended.

He noted that the document does not sufficiently recognize the impact of mass migration from Africa on the continent's countries. Africa is losing some of its most gifted young people to migration, he said, because of the exploitation of natural resources and the environment.

PASTOR'S PARAGRAPH

My Dear Friends,

Many thanks to the Parish Council and all Ministry volunteers who provided a wonderful Ministry Fair last weekend. And we are also grateful for all those who volunteered to help us in our ministries.

This week there is a 2nd collection for world missions. These funds are used for on-going programs in places that need attention all year round. Lately we have witnessed great generosity for the Hurricane that affected us.

I heard this past week that one of our oldest large church buildings, St Mary in Wilmington, suffered $5 million in damages. Fortunately our Diocese has good insurance coverage on our buildings.

CONFESSIONS: There will not be Confessions on Saturday October 20, nor on Saturday October 27. [Weddings will keep the pastor busy]. The next Saturday 10:30 am Confessions will be Saturday, November 3.

Father Donald Staib

NATIONAL AWARENESS INFANT LOSS—October is National Pregnancy and Infant Loss Awareness Month. When a child loses his parent, they are called an orphan. When a spouse loses her or his partner, they are called a widow or widower. When parents lose their child, there isn't a word to describe them. This month recognizes the loss so many parents experience across the United States and around the world. It is also meant to inform and provide resources for parents who have lost children due to miscarriage, ectopic pregnancy, molar pregnancy, stillbirths, birth defects, SIDS, and other causes. We keep all who experience tragic loss in our prayers.

Today is World Mission Sunday. We celebrate this day by remembering the revitalizing mission at the heart of our Christian faith—to bring the Gospel to all! The collection today for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith ensures the work and service of the Mission Church, as it supports priests, religious and lay leaders who offer the Lord's mercy and concrete help to the most vulnerable communities in the Pope's missions. Thank you for your generosity.

Fetal Development of Abigail—I must be getting younger. The wrinkles I had everywhere are slowly disappearing as I gain more and more weight. The third trimester is filled with aches and pains and general discomfort for Mom, but she knows that soon she will see her baby. "I was a stranger and you welcomed me...whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me." (Matthew 25:35,40)

Parish Mission Statement

We, the Parish of St. Mary Magdalene in Apex, North Carolina,
Believe in the constant love of God made known to us through the words and actions of Jesus.

We are a warm and welcoming community of faith in Christ and the Catholic Church.

We are committed to the religious and academic education of our families as a foundation for spiritual growth and to bring us into a closer relationship with God.

Through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, we seek to provide meaningful liturgies, stimulating faith formation,
And a broad range of social ministries for the growth of one another and of service to our greater community.
