Reflection

This selection is taken from a series of hope-filled proclamations in what is often referred to as Jeremiah's Book of Consolation. Today's selection is a highly emotional call to rejoice because God who allowed the people to go into exile is bringing them back.

The marchers in this procession home are the blind and the lame, pregnant women, and mothers with newborns. If there were ever an assembly needing God's protection as they journey to their homeland, this is it.

In the history of God's inversions of established values, these are the ones through whom God is promising new life. Through the mouth of the prophet Jeremiah, God still tells the world 'I will gather them from the ends of the world . . . I will console and guide them. . . For I am a Father.' Those who desire to be a part of God's family should take heed. – Sister Mary McGlone

PASTOR'S PARAGRAPH

My Dear Friends,

Our 2nd collection for the Missions last week was $7,130. That is about two times the amount we usually receive. Thank you for this generosity.

And also our parish is grateful for the additional gifts members have made to the offertory and paying for the new church. We have not asked for an increase in offertory since seeking pledges for the new church. But now it is time to ask – the operating costs of the church are larger and we would like to consider our staffing needs as we grow. Our membership has increased by 300 families in the past year.

On All Saints Day, November 1, this Thursday – which is a holyday – Masses will be with the school children at 8:15 in the morning and in the evening at 7 pm. Msgr. John Wall will be the priest for the Thursday morning Mass.

CONFESSIONS: There will not be Confessions on Saturday October 27. [A wedding will keep the pastor busy]. The next Saturday 10:30 am Confessions will be Saturday, November 3.

Father Donald Staib

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament/Eucharistic Adoration—StMM has Adoration available every Friday in the Chapel after daily Mass. On the First Friday of each month Adoration begins after daily Mass and ends at 7pm. Join us on Nov 2nd. This requires that we have many people committed to praying in front of the Blessed Sacrament throughout the day. We always need more people for this ministry! Please consider committing 1 hour each month. Take advantage of these opportunities to spend time with the Lord. If you would like to participate contact Anita Becker at 919-642-0441 or AlAnitaBecker@aol.com.

NATIONAL AWARENESS INFANT LOSS—October is National Pregnancy and Infant Loss Awareness Month. When a child loses his parent, they are called an orphan. When a spouse loses her or his partner, they are called a widow or widower. When parents lose their child, there isn't a word to describe them. This month recognizes the loss so many parents experience across the United States and around the world. It is also meant to inform and provide resources for parents who have lost children due to miscarriage, ectopic pregnancy, molar pregnancy, stillbirths, birth defects, SIDS, and other causes. We keep all who experience tragic loss in our prayers.

Respect Life News

Pray the Rosary for Life at 10:10am on the 2nd Sunday of the month in the Chapel. Our next Rosary for Life is Sunday, November 11.

It is a beautiful way to start the day whether you come before Mass or stay after. Prayer sheets are provided and families with children are welcome.

Fetal Development of Abigail—I weigh three pounds now and will gain about a half pound each week until birth. It's really cramped now, so Abigail has assumed the fetal position. I can see, but I don't have 20/20 vision and I won't have 20/20 vision until I'm 7 to 9 years old – hopefully. Mom is pretty uncomfortable. Fatigue is her constant companion. Sleeping on her left side may help, as it will remove some pressure on the nerves and blood vessels in her back. "For you love all things that are and loathe nothing that you have made; for what you hated, you would not have fashioned." (Wisdom 11:24)

Project Rachel Post Abortion Healing Retreat - If you desire healing from a past abortion, you are invited to experience the love of Jesus Christ at a Project Rachel weekend retreat November 9-11. Participation offers a beautiful opportunity to experience God's love, forgiveness and compassion. For more information or to register for the retreat, contact Project Rachel at project.rachel@raldioc.org or call (919) 852-1021. The cost is $150 for lodging, meals and all retreat materials. If you have a financial burden, some assistance is available. Registration deadline is October 26.

Parish Mission Statement

We, the Parish of St. Mary Magdalene in Apex, North Carolina,
Believe in the constant love of God made known to us through the words and actions of Jesus.

We are a warm and welcoming community of faith in Christ and the Catholic Church.

We are committed to the religious and academic education of our families as a foundation

Through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, we seek to provide meaningful liturgies, stimulating faith formation,
And a broad range of social ministries for the growth of one another and of service to our greater community.
