St. Mary Magdalene E-News June 15, 2018

A Note From Father Donald Staib

I am away this weekend - and I am grateful to Msgr. Gerald Lewis for being at St Mary Magdalene this weekend for our Masses. He has been most generous in helping when I have planned to be away from the parish. I will return and will have daily Mass on Tuesday June 19.

Our Youth are preparing to travel for their annual Appalachian Service Project next week. They will be engaged in helping to repair housing in rural southern Virginia. Last year I was able to go with them and I can attest that at the homes our youth go to - those homes are far different from our homes in Apex. May the Lord bless our Youth and Adult helpers in their preparations.

Because of being away and weddings the next time I will be able to have Saturday 10:30 Confessions will be Saturday June 30.

Sacraments

BAPTISMS - See the Guidelines on the Website - then email the Pastor. First time parents must attend a baptism class [a good time is during the 9 months prior to birth.] Baptisms are usually, not always, at 10am on Saturdays or at weekend Masses.

CONFESSIONS - Always check the Pastor's Paragraph in the weekly Bulletin or our E-News mailed on Fridays. Confessions are usually, but not every week, at 10:30am in the Church.

WEDDINGS - See the Guidelines on the Website - then email the Pastor.

Reflection

Let me close. One of America's most perceptive observers today, David Brooks, worries that the virus of what he calls entitlement might be at epidemic levels: "I got things coming to me. I have a right to this. Get out of my way or get run over. Ask not what you can do for others but only what they can do for you." Entitlement. We see it, he says, in such things around the world as a me-first nationalism, corporate greed, sheltered shores, spoiled children. And the only antibiotic he proposes is - guess what? - gratitude. The road described in sacred scripture as from me to thee, from mine to thine, from get to give, from please to thanks. A road that has led you, Class of 2018, thus far. But not just on your own. With God, with this university, with your friends and your family. "Thou hast given me so much," the Anglican George Herbert writes in poetry. "Give me one thing more: a grateful heart." -- Baccalaureate Speaker Cardinal Timothy Dolan at Wake Forest University

Financial Matters

OUR NEW CHURCH - We have the obligation to make large monthly payments for 15 years for the construction of the church. In addition we are challenged to respond to new parish endeavors in all our parish programs. We are grateful to those who help us in the weekly Offertory for regular expenses and in the monthly white envelope for debt payments for the church.
