St. Mary Magdalene E-News November 9, 2018

A Note From Father Donald Staib

We have received the bookcases and books of Deacon John Hubisz that were given to us. Many thanks to the Knights of Columbus who brought them here last Saturday. We will have the books on the shelves as soon as we can. We need to fasten the bookshelves to the wall first.

Deacon Joe LaPierre will be absent from our worship for a while, as he is helping a family member during time of illness. Please keep his family in your prayers.

I am grateful to Janine McGann and Liz Sams, our Youth Directors, who will have a Communion Service on Wednesday at 8:15 while I am away that day.

Thank you to all who have responded to our low-key request for addition funds for our offertory and for debt payments for the new church. Our membership has increased by 300 families in the past year and need funds for operating expenses and our consideration of increased staffing.

In the month of November we remember all those who have died, especially during the past year. We are grateful for what they have given to us during life and we pray for them eternal rest.

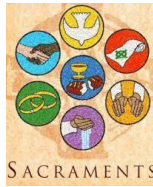

CONFESSIONS: There will be Confessions at 10:30 am Saturday November 10 and Saturday November 17, after Baptisms.

Reflection

"The most important word in Catholic social teaching is 'and'," John Carr said on Friday during a talk at the Fall Conference at the University of Notre Dame, put together each year by the Center for Ethics and Culture. "Human life and human dignity; human rights and responsibility; the dignity to work and the rights for workers; care for creation and care for the least of us; solidarity and the subsidiarity Catholics."

"The way to overcome polarization is to understand that 'and' is at the core of our tradition," Carr said.

John Carr is director of the Initiative on Catholic Social Thought and Public Life at Georgetown University

Youth Ministry Haiti Service Project

StMM Youth Ministry programs are teaming up to build a house in Jeremie, Haiti through the group, Haiti Mission Inc. You can learn more about this organization on their website at <http://www.haitimissioninc.com/> We are challenging every teen who is registered in either the EDGE, The Way, and Apostello to donate $7.25 between now and April 1st. This would give us the $3,750 to partner with HMI and provide a safe new home for a family in Haiti. In April 2018 Janine and Liz went on a mission trip to Haiti and saw firsthand the incredibly life changing work HMI is doing in the Jeremie area and felt a strong call to connect our StMM YM teens & families with HMI. Our youth can have a profound impact on the life of a family living in complete despair and allow them to have a safe place to sleep, gather, eat, live....something all of us take for granted. Anybody can donate to this cause and if we raise more than the $3,750 minimum, we'll build two houses! Our vision is for our community to accompany the people of Jeremie and join HMI in their mission of moving people from despair into poverty. Thank you for your support! To donate, click HERE.
