Construction Update & July 4th June 30, 2016

A Note From Father Donald Staib

Members of the Parish,

This weekend we welcome Father Francisco Javier Flores of the Religious Community of the Rogationist Fathers. Every parish in our Diocese has the opportunity once a year to hear from a Missionary about how we can help in the ministry of his community.

The second collection, after Communion, will be for the Rogationist Fathers. If you are away this weekend, I encourage you to offer your help when you return. Just mark a check or a plain envelope.

On this 4th of July weekend we rejoice in the blessings we all have in our life in the USA. May we always be a beacon of hope and freedom to peoples of the world.

Construction Update Photo

Above is a picture of the steel that has been put in place this week for one wing of the new church. While I was watching the installation I was reminded of my childhood toy - the erector set.

On a weekend soon one of the high beams will be placed near the gym and we all will be invited to write our names and messages - someone a century or two away will be able to read them and wonder about us.

The above picture is a single pipe which is for the water for our baptism font.

Memory Wall/Butterfly Board

Did you notice our butterfly bulletin board in the lobby? We will be putting names on the butterflies in the weeks to come. We want to do this carefully. Please note that this is just a stepping stone, not a replica to the actual final Memory Wall.
