

A Note from Father Francis

My trip to Uganda

It is with greatest excitement that I first convey warmest greetings and heart-felt appreciations from my family and friends to you all. Thank you for supporting me to meet my Family-Christian obligations as St. Paul in his first letter to Timothy 5:8 challenges us, "And whoever does not provide for relatives, and especially for family members, has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever." Brothers and sisters, your gifts of faith, love, and charity shown in kind inspired me and my family. I was able to share in their struggles and show them care. Martin Luther King Jr. says, "We must learn to live together as brothers or perish together as fools." Friends, whoever thinks about a family thinks about life. Brothers and sisters in the Lord, this trip was an overwhelming surprise to me and to many at home but more so, was both faith lifting and hope fulfilling to me and my people. I assure you, we had lots of celebrations and fun; like building a ginger bread house and sharing a variety of American Chocolate brands, sharing stories about driving in America using GPS, about my first foot at the beach (Atlantic Ocean), and the unique parish ministries, to mention a few.

Interestingly, however, though I was home, I could but not stop thinking about you- the angelic melodies at mass, Thursday mass with our saints (the monarchs), my senior professors at Cambridge Village, and the warm shower, the constant safe water flow, my comfortable bed, and missing January snow..... Lord Jesus!!! Let me conclude.

By and large, I remain grateful to God and to you all.

I pray that God will visit each one of your families, blessing you and inspiring you-where need be with a spirit of acceptance of differences within your family, while keeping the bond that connects you. Amen

I love you all.

God is good.

Sound & Video System HELP URGENTLY NEEDED

With additional programs constantly being added in our growing community at StMM, we need more volunteers to join our team! We welcome both adults and teenagers (for whom this would be a great way to log in service hours which always looks good on college applications!).

This is a flexible opportunity and the commitment level is up to you. If you have a knack for audio-video operations or would like to learn more about this skill, join the AV Ministry! Please email stmmsoundministry@gmail.com for more information.
