

A NOTE FROM DEACON DEV

All of us have a natural desire to be happy. The Catechism of the Catholic Church tells us that this desire comes from God (1718). Why? So that as we search to satisfy this desire, we will hopefully eventually find God, who alone can satisfy us and give us true happiness.

This weekend, our gospel reading is Matthew's account of the beatitudes. Each of the eight beatitudes begins with the word "blessed." This can be commonly translated as "happy." But this is no ordinary happiness. This is a pure, God-given joy and happiness that comes from knowing that we have obtained the approval of God.

And so, the beatitudes can be considered to be "be - attitudes" – attitudes that we need to have as Christians. Thus, if we live out the beatitudes, we are poor in spirit, compassionate, humble, genuine, pure of heart, a peacemaker, and a person who forgives easily.

Why is this so important to Jesus, so much so, that the Catechism tells us that the beatitudes are at the heart of his teaching (1716)? Because you see, the closer we live out the beatitudes, the more we image God. As God's children, we are called to be holy just as the Lord, our God is holy. The word "holy" comes from the Hebrew word qodesh which means to be set apart. God is holy because he stands alone, apart from every other person, being or entity. And, as his children, we are also called to be different, to be distinct, to be unique ... to be holy.

God knows that the challenge to be holy is not an easy one. In fact, it's against our nature. But this is why he has given us the Holy Spirit and the sacraments. So that our very nature can be changed so that we become more like Jesus. And think of the rewards: we shall be comforted, inherit the earth, be satisfied, be shown mercy, be called the children of God, the kingdom of heaven is ours, and my favorite ... we shall see God.

God bless,

Deacon Dev

StMM Lenten Activities

For Catholics worldwide, the Stations of the Cross is a popular Lenten devotion, also called the "Way of the Cross." It is a prayerful meditation on the final hours of Jesus' life.

Beginning February 20, Stations of the Cross will be held in the main Church every Friday during Lent, immediately after the 9am Mass and again at 7pm. Everyone is welcome!

Our St. Mary Magdalene Lenten Parish Mission, Kindling the Fire, will be led by the Franciscan Friars of the Renewal March 9–11, beginning at 7pm each evening. Each night will include adoration, preaching, prayer, confession, and praise.

Come join us as we gather as a parish community to grow closer to God and experience His love during this holy season.

Father Innocent Montgomery, CFR, will lead a weekly Lenten online prayer journey for St. Mary Magdalene called Consumed by Fire. This interactive series will include reflection, discussion, and a Q&A at the end of each session.

Join us as we grow in faith and prayer together throughout the season of Lent. The link to participate will be posted soon.
